

■

Joint position paper from ACP, other professional organizations and the American Bar Association calling for policies to help mitigate the rate of firearms injuries and deaths in the United States.

Read the original position paper published 4/17/2015 at Annals of Intern Medicine:
<http://annals.org/article.aspx?articleid=2151828>

1. Alliance for Academic Internal Medicine
2. American Academy of Child and Adolescent Psychiatry

4. American Academy of Neurology
5. American Academy of Otolaryngology – Head and Neck Surgery

American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation

9. American College of Chest Physicians

11. American College of Medical Genetics and Genomics
12. American College of Nurse-Midwives

14. American College of Occupational and Environmental Medicine

American College of Preventive Medicine

18. American Geriatrics Society
19. American Medical Student Association
20. American Medical Women's Association

22. American Psychological Association

American Society for Clinical Pathology
25. American Society of Hematology

26. American Thoracic Society
27. Association of Chiefs and Leaders of General Internal Medicine
28. Brady Campaign and Center to Prevent Gun Violence
29. CeaseFirePA
30. Children's Defense Fund
31. Council of Medical Specialty Societies
32. Doctors for America
33. Institute for Patient- and Family-Centered Care
34. Law Center to Prevent Gun Violence
35. National Association of Pediatric Nurse Practitioners
36. National Association of Social Workers
37. National Board of Medical Examiners
38. National Coalition Against Domestic Violence
39. National Medical Association
40. National Partnership for Women and Families
41. National Physicians Alliance
42. National Urban League
43. Newtown Action Alliance
44. Patient-Centered Primary Care Collaborative
45. Physicians for Social Responsibility
46. Prevention Institute
- 47.