

MEDICAL STUDENT MEMBERS GET INVOLVED IN ACP

Council of Student Members Call for Nominations

ACP seeks medical students to run for open seats on the Council of Student Members (CSM). The CSM is responsible for responding to requests from the Board of Regents, committees and staff for review of programs, products and services, and advising the Board of Regents and Board of Governors on:

- x Promoting internal medicine as a career
- x Increasing the value of ACP membership to medical students
- x Strengthening chapter and medical school level activities

To be eligible, you must currently be an ACP Medical Student Member who is enrolled and in good academic standing in your first, second, or third year of medical school. You must remain a medical student member and in good academic standing throughout your time on the CSM.

To be an effective council member you must commit to:

- x Serving on the CSM for a term beginning at ACP Internal Medicine Meeting 2020 and ending upon graduation from medical school.
- x Traveling to ACP Internal Medicine Meetings during your term to participate in CSM meetings and facilitate medical student activities during the meeting. ACP Internal Medicine Meeting 2020 will be held in Los Angeles, CA from on April 23-25.
- x Traveling to Philadelphia once each year for a council meeting and participating in several additional conference calls/webinars. The CSM Meeting will be held on August 14, 2020.

Colleges (AAMC) Convey system for council participation.

- x Spending approximately 1-2 hours bimonthly on council activities. Anticipated activities that council members may participate in include:
 - o Contributing articles to IMpact, W [] newsletter for medical students;
 - o Identifying and developing educational programming for medical students who attend ACP Internal Medicine Meetings;
 - o Reviewing and contributing to the development of programming for Internal Medicine Interest Groups;
