

Nomination materials must be submitted via e-mail to acpgovernance@acponline.org no later than

The council candidate application package should include:

Curriculum Vitae

The candidate's answers to the following questions (250 word limit for each question):

1. Why do you want to be a member of the CRFM? Describe specific skills that you will bring to the council and how you would apply them to benefit the council.
2. What is an example of an experience or situation where you had to demonstrate effective leadership?
3. If selected for the council, about what advocacy issue would you be most passionate?

One letter of support. Only one letter will be considered per candidate. This letter should be from a faculty member who knows you well and can speak strongly to your interest in ACP and joining the national council. Further weight will be given to a letter from an ACP Member, especially one with an ACP leadership position (i.e., ACP Fellow, ACP Chapter Governor, and/or ACP Regent). If a candidate obtains more than one letter of support, the candidate will be asked to select one for submission.

The council will conduct elections in December taking into consideration all aspects of diversity as well as each candidate's leadership/work experience, ACP involvement and potential contributions to the council, and candidates will be notified of the results by the end of December. Questions regarding the elections should be sent to ACP staff at acpgovernance@acponline.org.
